Report

It was great to see such a wide range of clubs represented at this evening's opening 10 of the season. This was despite the gloomy conditions.

The decision was taken to bring the start of the event forward by 15 minutes due to the poor fading light. This proved to be a good one as drizzle and then heavy rain set in for the riders.

Defending club champion Nik Allen set off in customary style and was more than a minute clear of second placed Spencer. We were pleased to welcome two members (Andy Crawford and Tom Gray) who were making their time trial debuts.

In the scratch classification Chris McNamara continues to impress.
