

Dick Turpin's Weekly Gossip.
 Source: Worthing Gazette copies at Worthing Local Studies Library.
 Turpin: 30.7.1902 P2C5

ORIGINAL COPY WITHDRAWN. CYCLING. Dick Turpin's Weekly Gossip. LAST Wednesday the Tarring C.C. brought off their Strawberry Feast at the Frankland Arms, Washington. Seeing the weather we had been getting, it was generally feared that the tempting fruit would be conspicuous by its absence. But fortune always favours the Figites, and this occasion was no exception to the rule. Host Charman had managed to obtain a supply which lacked neither quantity nor quality, and the little army of over three score made a determined attack on the festive table. Everbody was thoroughly satisfied; and even when "Cease fire!" was sounded the worthy landlord's resources were by no means exhausted. By this time sixty-odd cyclists were feeling mighty pleased with themselves and each other, so they were photographed in a group on the lawn. Not that it is an uncommon thing for the Figleaves to be in a happy frame of mind; quite the reverse! The camera was called into requisition for the benefit of the visitors to the Club's outing. When daylight began to fall, the merry feasters collected in the big room, and a pleasing collection of songs and dances filled the time up to ten o'clock. ----- The chief contributors to the programme	The chief contributors to the programme were Mrs. Peto, Mrs. Rockall, Messrs. Carter, Durant, Greenfield, and Peto. Scribe Peto and Alf. Carter had a busy time of it altogether. They kept everybody in a jolly humour by their running fire of funny little frivolities, which would charm away even the toothache. W. R. Paine was competing at Fareham last Thursday. As usual he got amongst the prizes, running second in the one and five-mile events, thereby winning a nice barometer and a clock. C. B. Kingsbury was remarkably successful at the same meeting; he scored a first in all three events. He and Bert Paine are thinking of getting up in the tandem pursuit race at the Excelsior's Annual Sports on August 20th. They would make a splendid tandem pair, though naturally handicapped by being unable to practice together. I am glad to say the last Evening Meeting, as well as proving a sporting success, turned out all right financially. The Excelsior portion of the profits made by the Joint Committee is about five pounds, and will cover the loss on the Whit Monday Meeting. For the last fortnight a local cyclist, Frank Hodgor, has been enjoying a little tour "on his own." Leaving Worthing at mid-day on the 13th, he finished his first stage at Reading. Next day the wheelman continued his solitary but pleasant ride, taking the road through Oxford. Here he enjoyed a splash in the Varsity Swimming Baths, after which he pattered along to Worcester. ----- A little time was spent in looking round	A little time was spent in looking round Worcester Cathedral, and the city as well; then our friend turned his front wheel southward to Gloucester and Bristol, stopping a few days at the latter. Unfortunately the bad cycling weather compelled him to complete his journey by rail, thereby missing some pretty bits of country. The twenty-five miles' Amateur Championship of England, run at Pontypridd last Saturday, proved a shock for the Londoners. Such men as A. E. Wills, W. H. Payne, and A. S. Ingram failed to uphold the honour of the big village, the race going to Bert Andrews, of Carmarthen, who won by a hundred yards, in an hour and 22 1/2 min. My worthy colleague, "Direct Spoke," asks: "Will motor bikes be constructed for ladies?" Why, bless me! there are already several on the market. A motor paper published a photo of a lady aboard a trim little motor bicycle a week or two back. Still, I do not think the average lady would appreciate anything with quite so many works and so frail a constitution. Next Wednesday's runs are: Excelsior C.C., Washington; Tarring C.C., Horsham and Ashington. DICK TURPIN.
--	--	---

CYCLING.

Dick Turpin's Weekly Gossip.

LAST Wednesday the Tarring C.C. brought off their Strawberry Feast at the Frankland Arms, Washington. Seeing the weather we had been getting, it was generally feared that the tempting fruit would be conspicuous by its absence. But fortune always favours the Figites, and this occasion was no exception to the rule.

Host Charman had managed to obtain a supply which lacked neither quantity nor quality, and the little army of over three score made a determined attack on the festive table. Everbody was thoroughly satisfied; and even when "Cease fire!" was sounded the worthy landlord's resources were by no means exhausted.

By this time sixty-odd cyclists were feeling mighty pleased with themselves and each other, so they were photographed in a group on the lawn.

Not that it is an uncommon thing for the Figleaves to be in a happy frame of mind ; quite the reverse! The camera was called into requisition for the benefit of the visitors to the Club's outing.

When daylight began to fail, the merry feasters collected in the big room, and a pleasing collection of songs and dances filled the time up to ten o'clock.

The chief contributors to the programme were Mrs. Peto, Mrs. Rockall, Messrs. Carter, Durant, Greenfield, and Peto. Scribe Peto and Alf. Carter had a busy time of it altogether. They kept everybody in a jolly humour by their running fire of funny little frivolities, which would charm away even the toothache.

W.R. Paine was competing at Fareham last Thursday. As usual he got amongst the prizes, running second in the one and five-mile events, thereby winning a nice barometer and a clock.

C.B. Kingsbury was remarkably successful at the same meeting; he scored a first in all three events.

He and Bert Paine are thinking of getting up in the tandem pursuit race at the Excelsior's Annual Sports on August 20th. They would make a splendid tandem pair, though naturally handicapped by being unable to practice together.

I am glad to say the last Evening Meeting, as well as proving a sporting success, turned out all right financially.

The Excelsior portion of the profits made by the Joint Committee is about five pounds, and will cover the loss on the Whit Monday Meeting.

For the last fortnight a local cyclist, Frank Hedger, has been enjoying a little tour "on his own." Leaving Worthing at mid-day on the 13th, he finished his first stage at Reading.

Next day the wheelman continued his solitary but pleasant ride, taking the road through Oxford. Here he enjoyed a splash in the 'Varsity Swimming Baths, after which he pottered along to Worcester.

A little time was spent in looking round Worcester Cathedral, and the city as well; then our friend turned his front wheel southward to Gloucester and Bristol, stopping a few days at the latter.

Unfortunately the bad cycling weather compelled him to complete his journey by rail, thereby missing some pretty bits of country.

The twenty-five miles' Amateur Championship of England, run at Pontypridd last Saturday, proved a shock for the Londoners.

Such men as A.E. Wills, W.H. Payne, and A.S. Ingram failed to uphold the honour of the big village, the race going to Bert Andrews, of Carmarthen, who won by a hundred yards, in an hour and 22³/₄min.

My worthy colleague, "Direct Spoke," asks: "Will motor bikes be constructed for ladies ? "

Why, bless me! there are already several on the market. A motor paper published a photo of a lady aboard a trim little motor bicycle a week or two back.

Still, I do not think the average lady would appreciate anything with quite so many works and so frail a constitution.

Next Wednesday's runs are: Excelsior C.C ., Washington; Tarring C.C., Horsham and Ashington .

DICK TURPIN.