

Dick Turpin's Weekly Gossip.
Source: Worthing Gazette copies at Worthing Local Studies Library.
 Turpin: 17.9.1902 P2C5

CYCLING. -----  Dick Turpin's Weekly Gossip.        ----- SEVEN members of the Excelsior C.C. had an unofficial run to Horsham early this week, W. R. Paine being in command. Remembering that the host of the Crown at Horsham had a reputation for quince jam, I joined the boys, and managed to reach there before the speedier members of the party had quite finished up the toothsome luxury. We found Horsham quite busy with cyclists, several of them first-class speed men. In our own party we had the perpetual Champion of Sussex; also a London man who at present holds English Amateur records from fifty-one to a hundred miles. We saw the fifty-miles' Champion of England go through, with another man, on a tandem. They were trying to grind up some records, and we pitied them, as the wind was killing. Medal riders were having a bad day generally. Durant, of the Excelsior C.C., had started for a "twelve," but a heavy side wind for fifty miles caused him to postpone it and join the "quince jam brigade." I saw a pair of tandems and a single looking	I saw a pair of tandems and a single looking very sad at Arundel earlier in the day. They were half-way through a hundred miles' ride, and were suffering tremendously from the "draught." A couple of local wheelmen have lately been having some fun at the expense of motorists. Choosing a "speed stretch," the two imitation policemen, with due ostentation, signalled the approach of the cars as they hove in sight, and, watch in hand, proceeded to time them. It worked beautifully, and the pair of impostors had the pleasure of seeing three or four powerful and speedy motors suddenly adopt a touring gait as they passed the amateur guardians of the peace. The drivers looked very sour! Last week I saw a new machine having a frame no less than thirty-two inches high. I am anxious now to see the giant who will ride it. Men considerably over six feet usually content themselves with lower machines than this, so I look for someone pretty high up in the world this time. The Excelsior veteran, Sam Clark, has been	The Excelsior veteran, Sam Clark, has been putting in some work behind W. A. Hewer's motor bicycle on the road, with a view of getting fit for the Veterans' Championship to-day. He was moving very well behind the new pacing the other day, after a run to Slindon Church and round by Ball's Hut, on the Chichester road. The Excelsior C.C. have elected Mr. R. H. Whittaker, of Arundel, an honorary life member of the Club, to show their appreciation of his kind assistance to them as official Judge, and in other capacities, for a number of years past. Next Wednesday both the Excelsior and Tarring Clubs run to Littlehampton for the closing spin of the season. DICK TURPIN.
--	--	--

CYCLING.

-----
Dick Turpin's Weekly Gossip.
 -----

SEVEN members of the Excelsior C.C. had an unofficial run to Horsham early this week, W.R. Paine being in command. Remembering that the host of the Crown at Horsham had a reputation for quince jam, I joined the boys, and managed to reach there before the speedier members of the party had quite finished up the toothsome luxury.

We found Horsham quite busy with cyclists, several of them first-class speed men.

In our own party we had the perpetual Champion of Sussex; also a London man who at present holds English Amateur records from fifty-one to a hundred miles.

We saw the fifty-miles' Champion of England go through, with another man, on a tandem. They were trying to grind up some records, and we pitied them, as the wind was killing.

Medal riders were having a bad day generally. Durant, of the Excelsior C.C., had started for a "twelve," but a heavy side wind for fifty miles caused him to postpone it and join the "quince jam brigade."

-----

I saw a pair of tandems and a single looking very sad at Arundel earlier in the day. They were half-way through a hundred miles' ride, and were suffering tremendously from the "draught."

-----

A couple of local wheelmen have lately been having some fun at the expense of motorists.

-----

Choosing a "speed stretch," the two imitation policemen, with due ostentation, signalled the approach of the cars as they hove in sight, and, watch in hand, proceeded to time them. It worked beautifully, and the pair of impostors had the pleasure of seeing three or four powerful and speedy motors suddenly adopt a touring gait as they passed the amateur guardians of the peace. The drivers looked very sour!

-----

Last week I saw a new machine having a frame no less than thirty-two inches high.

-----

I am anxious now to see the giant who will ride it. Men considerably over six feet usually content themselves with lower machines than this, so I look for someone pretty high up in the world this time.

-----

The Excelsior veteran, Sam Clark, has been putting in some work behind W.A. Hewer's motor bicycle on the road, with a view of getting fit for the Veterans' Championship to-day.

-----

He was moving very well behind the new pacing the other day, after a run to Slindon Church and round by Ball's Hut, on the Chichester road.

-----

The Excelsior C.C. have elected Mr. R.H. Whittaker, of Arundel, an honorary life member of the Club, to show their appreciation of his kind assistance to them as official Judge, and in other capacities, for a number of years past.

-----

Next Wednesday both the Excelsior and Tarring Clubs run to Littlehampton for the closing spin of the season.

DICK TURPIN.