RESULTS SHEET – LONG FURLONG CIRCUIT (GS/983)

Sunday 29th March 2015

Promoted for and on behalf of Cycling Time Trials under their rules and regulations

Simply horrendous weather with strong gusting winds and lashing rain. A third of the field wisely decided that it was not fit and decided not to start. The descents down Long Furlong were the most difficult parts with both headwinds and crosswinds combining to make things particularly difficult

A huge thumbs-up goes to our junior rider Shaeff Potter who had a real go and recorded a quite excellent time of 51:54. This was despite the distraction of dropping his Garmin mid-race. His enthusiasm and perseverance is paying dividends.

The podium positions were the same as for the Ashurst circuit, but this time Trevor Leeding was first by a significant margin. Once again Mike O’Gorman and Simon Atkinson were closely grouped for second and third places respectively. Martin Booker rode a very respectable 45:38 to finish in fourth place and is clearly benefitting from his diligent winter training programme.

Roger Smith of South Downs Bikes was the fastest rider of the day.

As always the riders are indebted to those officials who turned out early in the morning in such awful conditions just so that the event can take place. Thanks guys!

All were agreed that it’s more fun in the warm and dry.
