EVENING 10 SERIES - No 16 (G10/98)

Report

Thursday 31st July

Carl Trevis follows on from his excellent performance in recording a personal best of 21:36 on G10/97 two days ago by winning tonight's club event in 21:55.

With just one evening 10 remaining this result means that Simon Atkinson cannot be caught and he will be the 2014 series winner.

A major hold-up at the final roundabout caused by clueless and dangerous driving by a foreign licensed articulated lorry majorly affected all of the last three riders (Colin Barton, Mike O'Gorman and Trevor) and pretty well ruined it for all. Despite the chaotic interruption Trevor did finish in second place with a 22:18, and Mike secured the third place with 22:49.

It's great to see Alan Cooper back riding and being competitive again after his lengthy absence due to a road accident. A time of 23:12 is a very creditable one given the conditions.

In the battle of the juniors Shaeff Potter pipped Hugo McLaughlin by just 16 seconds.

A rare visit by an In-Gear Quickvit Trainsharp rider saw Jack Donaldson record a 20:39, but this was some way behind local star Chris McNamara (Pedal Heaven) who rode a fine 20:02.
