Report

Thursday 7th August

Another nice warm evening resulted in a bumper field for the final evening 10 of the season. It would seem that many were keen to take advantage of this season's extension to 17 races (previously 14).

The wind was not appreciably different to recent weeks but it would seem that everyone was giving it their all on the last opportunity and a succession of best performances ensued.

Last year's 10 series champion Chris Twine made only his third appearance and scorched round in 20:37. This was a personal best and easily the fastest of any WECC rider this season, being the first to break the 21 minute mark. It is also a club record beating the 20:47 that he had previously recorded.

This season's 10 series champion-elect Simon Atkinson also returned to action following a lay off after the National 24 hour time trial and an epic ride in France. He was clearly using this as a training ride, using a road bike and non-aero clothing, and didn't trouble the leader board.

In second place was Carl Trevis who has knocked another 26 seconds of last week's personal best with a fine 21:10. This was the second fastest ride of any WECC rider this season. Completing the WECC podium, Dom Maxwell is clearly getting used to using a time trial bike as he took another 30 seconds off his personal best to finish in third place.

Nicole Patterson-Lett rode a fine 26:18 in her sixth ride of the series, thus completing the necessary minimum. However it was to no avail as Joan Lennon remains just ahead of her on points and becomes the 2014 Ladies 10 Series champion-elect.

Well done too to young Shaeff Potter who has been hugely determined this season and who takes the Junior title.

Mike O'Gorman secured the 2014 Vets 10 Series title.

Personal bests were achieved by Rick Hughes, Robert Downham, Colin Barton, Ian Cheesman and Phil Freat. Quite a night. With many riders showing marked improvements during the past few weeks perhaps the end of the season has come too early for some.

EVENING 10 SERIES - No 17 (G10/98)

Thursday 7th August 2014

Promoted for and on behalf of Cycling Time Trials under their rules and regulations

Simon McNamara of Southdowns Bikes was the quickest on the night, again with a personal best of 19:50. The Reynolds Aero 72 front wheel that he was testing out clearly suited him. Jack Donaldson of IGQVTS took 30 seconds off his initial ride here last week with a blistering 20:09 so it looks like he's getting used to the course. Another quick man from Southdowns Bikes, Marc Clothier, finished as third fastest rider on the night.

Simon's time of 19:50 was the fastest of the season on the course.

The only other riders to beat the 30mph mark were:

James Lowden (Lewes Wanderers)	19:53
Chris McNamara (Pedal Heaven Colbornes)	19:57
Steve Kane (Brighton Excelsior CC)	19:59

Simon's brother Chris had less good fortune on the night. A fault in the battery charging on his electronic gears resulted in him being a DNS.
