Report

The season kicked off with a full field and with nice weather for April, albeit that the deceptive north-easterly wind had an effect with markedly slower times than in the opening event of 2014. It was great to have the season up and running after all the winter debates as to how they would be run given that Barrie Le Grove had stepped down from the role as event secretary. As it turned out it all went very well – a really nice club feel to it - and those who contributed this week are to be applauded. Before the start there was something of an inter-club feel to the evening with six riders from South Downs Bikes signing on.

Defending Evening 10 Series champion Simon "Daffodil" Atkinson fully lived up to his new nickname by coming good and claiming his first win of the season, thus showing that after a barren winter he blooms in spring!

After winning the first three club events of the season (Handicap 10, Ashurst Circuit, Long Furlong) Trevor Leeding found himself pushed back into third place today by Mike O'Gorman who was the only Excelsior rider to improve upon his time from last season's opener.

Mark Newnham finished a creditable fourth and after a winter's hard training Martin Booker just pipped Rick Hughes by a single second for the fifth spot although this week it was Rick's turn to draw the short straw of luck at Washington roundabout as he was forced to a complete standstill.

Good to see some new names on the board with Andrew Haste showing steady improvement in only his third event and, following on from his strong riding on the winter club rides, Guy Smith recorded an excellent time for his first ever time trial. Shaeff Potter was the leading junior – in fact he was the only junior.

In the private entries just days after his crash in a Road Race in Northumberland Chris McNamara (Pedal Heaven) showed his class to do the fastest ride of the evening. Nice to see Nick Dwyer (Lewes Wanderers) back in action after a badly broken collar bone in the ESCA 2 Up Team Time Trial caused him to miss virtually all of 2014. Dangerous stuff this cycling! All this, and a two-up pairing entry too. A nice evening all round

This coming weekend sees an upswing in Open activity for the WECC riders. Three pairs have entered the Sussex Cycling Association 2-Up team time trial to be held on the Ashurst based course GS/987. With three wins this season Trevor Leeding heads the main duo with Simon Atkinson (one win). The other two pairs are Martin Booker and Mark Newnham, plus Chris Putnam and Shaeff Potter (junior).

Mike O'Gorman has chosen to enter the Southern Counties Cycling Union 25 mile time trial on G25/54 instead, as he begins his quest to retain the SCCU Veterans' Best All Rounder title (aggregated over rides of 25, 50 and 100 miles) that he won last year. Phil Frean and Rick Hughes have also entered this event.

And to complete the set Colin Barton has entered the Farnborough & Camberley CC 25 to be held on Saturday at Bentley (H25/8).
