Thursday 2nd July 2015

Report

A time trial in the middle of a scorching heatwave and four riders improved their personal best times, including one getting a new club record.

In his tenth ever time trial Guy Smith recorded a stunning 20:34 and in doing so set a new club record. This was a 20 seconds improvement in his recent personal best. Given that he is improving on an almost weekly basis as he adapts his technique and equipment, it is fascinating to think just how fast he might actually go. As predicted he has now taken over first place on the 2015 series leaderboard. He is level on points with Simon Atkinson (each with 5 wins and 1 second) but with a superior time aggregate. It seems a nailed on certainty that Guy will improve that to the maximum of 6 wins in the very near future and that defending champion Simon will be left with the best (lowest) ever score by a rider to not win the title.

Mark Newnham in third place is another rider who has been experimenting with his bike set up and he obviously knows what is right for him as he recorded a new personal best for the second successive week, going inside 22 minutes for the first ever time. The reductions in his pb times make impressive reading: from 22:25 to 22:09 to 21:49.

Rick Hughes in fifth place also enjoyed success as he took 17 seconds off his personal best with a 22:15. This is all the more impressive when put in the context of having ridden in the gruelling SCCU 50 at the weekend.

Also riding in that SCCU event was Martin Booker and he too managed to improve his personal best, by three seconds to 22:35.

Quite a few riders completed their sixth rides this evening, thus qualifying for the overall season competition. There are now five events left.

Marc Clothier of South Downs Bikes/Casco was tonight's fast man with 20:30, a mere 4 seconds ahead of our own
Guy Smith.

WECC riders in Open Time Trials

Saturday 27th June

Colin Barton competed in the Horsham Cycling 10 mile event recording a 23:43 in his first ever ride on the Broadbridge Heath based G10/57 course. This placed him 33th. Colin found the uphill sections harder than he had been expecting and felt that he didn't pace his effort evenly, so he is looking forward to another crack at it in two weeks time.

Sunday 28th June

On Sunday the club held its annual 50 mile Championship competition, taking the results from entries within the Southern Counties CU time trial which is held on the challenging circuit G50/10 that climbs over the South Downs and back.

Mike O'Gorman improved on last season's time by over 5 and half minutes to win the Excelsior title with a time of 2:03:14. This also placed him first in the Southern Counties Veterans competition. In second place was Simon Atkinson whose time of 2:03:53 was also a personal best for this course. Ian Cheesman did very well to finish in third place with 2:05:05 given that he has only recently returned to action after serious injury and this was his first ever 50 mile event. This gained him first place in the Excelsior handicap competition.

Another rider in his first ever 50 mile event, Martin Booker, rode very strongly to finish in 2:06:52. Rick Hughes improved on last season's time as he came 5th with 2:09:31. Rome Bhamra showed his usual enthusiasm and commitment as he battled round for a 2:41:39 so very well done to him.

On the same day Trevor Leeding opted to ride a different 50 as he chose the Hampshire Road Club's event on the fast A3 based circuit. A superb 1:55:27 was the fastest time by an Excelsior rider for that distance this season thereby moving him into pole position for this season's Shipton Cup.

This coming weekend

There are no locally based events on Saturday.

On Sunday we have just three riders in the Sussex Cyclists' CA 50. So Mike and Rick will get to ride the sporting G50/10 course for the second time in eight days and Trevor returns for another 50.
