RESULTS SHEET – HARD RIDERS (GS992)

Sunday 30th August 2015

Promoted for and on behalf of Cycling Time Trials under their rules and regulations

Report

Although 33 Excelsior riders took part in the Evening 10 series there were precious few on the start line for the toughest of the club time trials.

So huge credit to Nicky Carsons for having a go – and a very respectable time it was too. It may well have been the ladies record for the course (that needs to be checked), and was clearly the best ladies' time in the last five years.

Guy Smith demonstrated that it's not just 10 mile time trials that he's good at as he finished almost two minutes clear of the chasing riders in his first ever time trial at a different distance. Having said that his time was a bit slower than Simon Atkinson's winning time of last season. Simon's form and motivation have fallen away this season and he was way back in fifth place on the day.

The other three riders; Mike O'Gorman, Rick Hughes and Ian Cheesman all ended up with very similar times and all just failing to beat the hour mark. Rick was particularly happy though as he took two minutes off last year's best and eleven minutes off his ride of two seasons ago, so real progress there.

The Hard Riders is the final qualifying event for the WECC SPOCO Trophy and also the WECC Handicap Points Trophy. The final tables are included at the end of this report.

WECC riders in Open Time Trials

Yesterday

In the Reading CC 10 on H10/8 at Bentley Mike O’Gorman rode a 22:10 and Colin Barton recorded a 22:58. This was a new personal best in an Open 10 miles event for Colin (and is quite close to his G10/98 best of 22:41). Certainly it was better than his previous visit to this course when he shipped his chain immediately after the start and had to abort. On the same day Rick Hughes rode in the Sussex CA Sporting 10 on G10/45 at Loxwood and was disappointed with his time of 25:47 on this challenging course.

Today

Several of our riders opted to skip the Hard Riders and compete in the Southdown Velo 25 on P901/25 at Fontwell in advance of the imminent Inter-Club event which is run on that course. This can be a quick course but as with all courses the conditions need to be right. Being near the sea this course can suffer from wind and today was just one of those days as only 26 of the 70 finishers went under the hour.

Martin Booker was the quickest in 59:59 (26th place) but was disappointed not to have improved on his 59:55 of last week on G25/54. An early start meant warming up on the road in the dark which isn’t ideal.

Following on from a good ride in yesterday’s 10 Colin Barton recorded a new personal best at 25 miles as his 1:01:23 (34th place) was a 57 seconds improvement. An excellent couple of days. His close rival Andy Haste also notched a new personal best with a 43 seconds improvement to 1:01:47 (37th place).

Schaeff Potter rode in his first ever 25 and his 1:03:44 gained him a very creditable 44th place and helps him as it is a qualifying ride for the WECC Junior BAR. Phil Frean was close behind in 46th place with 1:04:29. Nicole Patterson-Lett finished in 61st place with 1:11:05 and this is a qualifying ride for the WECC Ladies’ BAR.

Upcoming events

Tomorrow sees Rick Hughes and Mike O’Gorman complete their punishing weekend schedule of three time trials as they compete in the Sussex CA Sporting 25 on the hilly Loxwood G25/49 course.

On Saturday Colin Barton and Mike O’Gorman return to H10/8 for the Charlotteville CC 10. On Sunday we have a good sized entry in the SCCU 25 on G25/54 at Broadbridge Heath. This event has a full field of 120 riders. Colin Barton, Joan Lennon, Andy Haste, Trevor Leeding, Martin Booker, Mike O’Gorman and Rome Bhamra are our riders.
