RESULTS

G25/95 is always a challenge, even in good weather, and today proved to be no different. Nobody beat the hour mark and very few actually have since this course was created.

Firstly let us congratulate the champions:

SENIOR	Neil Crowther
LADIES	Karen McGrath
JUNIOR	Harry Pask
HANDICAP	Trevor Leeding

Neil is on a roll right now and it was no surprise that he headed the leaderboard. Trevor put in his usual strong ride to clinch second place and confound the handicappers.

Huge congratulations to the ladies as both rode their best 25 time of the season despite being on a slower SPOCO course (unlike the men who were all well down on their 'usual' times). So a chorus of applause for both Karen and Joan. Great stuff.

Well done also to Harry. This is his first season and his first 25. It is to his credit that he is prepared to go it a go and he is rewarded by claiming the junior title. And he is always so cheerful and enthusiastic.

Another rider making his debut at this distance was Jeff Blunsdon and what a fine time he recorded.

And lastly - thanks from all the riders to Chris Putnam and Claire Booker put putting on the event, and also to Adrian Palmer, Tony Palmer, Martin Booker and Rick Hughes for all the necessary supplementary support with timekeeping, marshalling etc.
