Report

Our commiserations go to Paul Townsley who had the misfortune to slide off at the second of the Ashington roundabouts. He reports that the bike is okay and that he is just a bit sore with road rash to knee, hip and elbow. It is pleasing to hear that a couple and also a motorcyclist stopped to assist. Sportsman of the night award goes to Trevor Leeding who paused mid-race to check that all was okay (and in the circumstance managed a very respectable time).

Despite the recent fine weather the evening was less of a 'float day' than had been anticipated with a cool 16 mph WSW. Perhaps that was a contributor to the low numbers in the field.

A few riders managed season's bests, but given the time of year that's no big deal.

Good luck to all of our riders who are competing in the club's Open 25 this weekend.
