Very much a mixed bag to report on from this event. Well done to Gavin Ash. This was his first 50 and he had done very few time trials so 9th place overall plus the WECC Club Championship is quite excellent. John McGrath also put in a fine performance, finishing an agonising 12 seconds over the magic 2 hour mark.

WECC picked up the second place in the team competition, behind South Downs Bikes, and Gavin added to his wine haul by winning the raffle too.

Trevor was less happy with his effort, finishing a bit down on recent seasons. Another newbie 50er was Karen and she did really well.

Which brings us to the bad news. Turning left at Cowfold Ian Cheesman lost control and broke his collarbone. A sad end to what was a stellar season. Clearly in shock one of the first things that he said as he lay in agony was "I was going really well".

That rather changes things in the race towards the club's Championship Points Competition and the club's Veterans' Championship Points Competition. It's become much more open.
