A big change in the conditions as the long heatwave finally gave way to lashing rain and strong winds. 17 of the 45 entrants in the SCA scratch event opted not to start - but WECC riders are clearly made of sterner stuff as all bar one opted to ride.

Given the adverse weather Nik did extremely well to beat his last seasons time by almost a minute and a half (a PB), finishing a superb 3rd on scratch. Gavin's first effort at a 30 produced a fine 1:10:02 and seventh place.

Neil, Trevor and Martin clustered together on the results list, all with very good times in the circumstances.

With just one qualifying event left (the Championship Hill Climb) Trevor Leeding now heads both the club's Championship Points Competition and the club's Veterans' Championship Points Competition.

The aggregate times of Nik, Gavin and Neil (3:31:41) set a new club team record beating the 3:33:09 set by Richard Shipton, Paul Toppin and Colin Miller back in 1992.
