Report

There was a good and high quality turnout for the first of the three short sharp challenges up Washington Bostal.

John McGrath beat his previous PB set two years ago and took the honours on the night. Nik Allen also recorded a PB but even that was not good enough to beat John.

Simon Steeles' first go at the hill climb resulted in an impressive time and placing. Spencer was also making his first ride. Martin Booker notched a significant PB but was still just pipped by Rick Hughes in the rankings.

Adrian Rodgers, now riding for Sussex Revolution VC, actually holds the club record from 2008 (when he was a WECC rider) at 1:27.64. In fact he has nine of the ten fastest WECC ever rides (Mark Newnham being the other with 1:29.30 in 2015). The course record holder is Stanley Kennett with 1:24.01 (set in 2016).
